Rob Tillwick named NWCC Vocational Rehabilitation Specialist

The Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court is pleased to announce the hiring of Rob Tillwick as a Vocational Rehabilitation Specialist. Rob assumed the duties of the position on September 12, 2016.

As a Vocational Rehabilitation Specialist, Rob will monitor performance of certified service providers, review, approve, and monitor proposed vocational rehabilitation plans, authorize payments from the Workers' Compensation Trust Fund, and perform related work as required. Rob's contact information and caseload will be made available on the court's web site.

Rob brings to the court his expertise as an independent Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor, having spent the past two years as a court-certified counselor. Prior to this, Rob performed internship duties for a year and a half with a certified counselor and also performed various duties with a mental wellness and substance abuse clinic.

Rob received his Master of Rehabilitation Counseling (MRC) degree from Utah State University and passed the requirements of the Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (CRCC) to become a nationally certified Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln.

Born and raised in the Omaha area, Rob currently lives with his wife in Bennington, Nebraska. He is an avid Husker fan and enjoys football, fishing, woodworking, and family.
